

Students of Bachelors in Journalism & Mass Communication, Doaba College bagged University Top positions

Five students of Fifth semester of B.A. Journalism & Mass Communication of Doaba College, brought accolades to the college by attaining outstanding positions in December 2020-21 examinations, conducted by Guru Nanak Dev University. Meetali stood fourth, Nikita eighth and Anchal bagged tenth position in university examinations. Rashi Rawal and Shivalika made the college proud by sharing twelfth position in the same.

Dr. Pardeep Bhandari, Principal, Doaba College, congratulated the achievers, their parents and teachers. He acknowledged the efforts of Dr. Simran Sidhu, Head , P.G. Department of Journalism & Mass Communication along with the faculty members for their arduous work and advice, that helped students in adapting an apt course of action to prepare for University examinations, while meeting the challenges of COVID. He also appreciated the persistent hard work of students along with the involvement of parents.

Dr. Simran Sidhu, Head, P.G. Department of Journalism & Mass Communication, while admiring the conviction and hard work of students said that the department during the strenuous period of COVID devised and adapted novel online practices including updated study material, e-sources, practical training through online seminars and classes, thus tried to make learning easier as well as comprehensible for the students. Furthermore, personal interactive sessions with students through telephone and various applications helped in resolving doubts of students, which in turn ensured good performance by them during these university exams.
