

Vidhi Joshi, Student of Masters in Journalism & Mass Communication, Doaba College bagged Third position in University examination

Vidhi Joshi of M.A. Journalism & Mass Communication Semester III bagged the third position in November 2023 examinations, conducted by Guru Nanak Dev University.

Dr. Pardeep Bhandari, Principal, Doaba College applauded the rising star for preserving the distinct identity of the Journalism department of Doaba College through her persistent academic excellence.

Dr. Simran Sidhu, Head, PG Department of Journalism & Mass Communication said that the department has been persistently making its mark in academic as well as industrial placements. The faculty members make all efforts to provide study material and books of repute to help them perform extraordinarily in exams.