

The Dramatic Club “Rangbaaz” of the Department of ECA successfully conducted a workshop on the theme “Fundamentals of Theatre” on 9 March 2026. Students from various departments actively participated in the workshop.

The resource person for the workshop was Prof. Rahul Bhardwaj from the Department of English, who has directed several short plays and one-act plays addressing various social issues. During the session, he shared his valuable insights with the students and explained the basic components of theatre such as music, lighting, script, acting, and voice modulation. He also highlighted different forms of theatrical activities that students can perform, including mime, skit, play, and mimicry.

The session was interactive and informative, providing students with a deeper understanding of theatrical expression and performance techniques.

At the end of the workshop, Dr. Ranjit Singh, Coordinator of The Dramatic Club Rangbaaz, expressed his gratitude to the speaker Prof. Rahul Bhardwaj for sharing his expertise and thanked the participating students for contributing to the successful completion of the workshop.
