Event Organized by- Student Welfare Committee

Student Welfare Committee of Doaba College Jalandhar celebrated an online mothers' day event with the theme, 'Thank you Mom'. In this event, mothers of many students were invited. They participated in various activities and spent memorable moments together. There was a formal welcome of all the mothers by Prof. Surjeet Kaur, convenor of Student Welfare Committee. She acclaimed that God has bestowed all of us with a mother so that we can be taken care of in the best way.

The Principal Dr. Pardeep Bhandari was also present along with his respected mother Mrs. Kusum Bhandari ji. He welcomed all the mothers and emphasized on the importance of Mothers' Day as a celebration of the bond of everlasting love and affection between a child and mother. He also talked about the sacrifices a mother makes for her children and considered mother as a true friend for life. He motivated students for selfless love and respect towards their mothers. To mark the beginning of the occasion, Mrs. Kusum Bhandari ji sang a bhajan to seek the blessings of God.

After this, Prof. Priya Chopra acquainted all the participants with the state-of-art infrastructure of Doaba College through PPT mode. She also applauded the academic, sports and other achievements of the college students in different fields. A few proud mothers namely Ms. Kulwinder Arora, Ms. Anu Wadhwa, Ms. Rajwant

Rawal, Ms. Neelam Grover and Ms. Manwinder Kaur thanked the college and its faculty for the overall development of their wards.

Aarushi a student of BCA VI Semester played a melodious song on guitar dedicated to all the mothers and touched their hearts. Fun games like ‘Geet Pehchano’ and ‘Bujho to Jane’ were also conducted especially for mothers by Dr. Bharti Gupta, Department of Mathematics and Dr. Jasvinderjit Kaur, Department of Commerce and Business Management. All the mothers participated in these games with full enthusiasm. Ms. Anupam Sharma, mother of Noor and Ms. Ritu Sharma, mother of Aarushi were crowned with the titles of ‘Bollywood Queen’ and ‘Wisdom Queen’ respectively.

In the end, Convenor Prof. Sonia Kalra formally thanked all the participants and all the mothers for gracing the occasion. Finally, she concluded the event with a melodious song. She also thanked all the team members of student welfare committee for making the event a great success. Nearly one hundred students alongwith their mothers participated and event was also shared live on facebook.
